

The Objects of the PTA

- To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, community and place of worship.
- To raise the standards of home life
- To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth
- To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth.
- To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Membership Opportunities

The Wisconsin PTA, part of the National PTA, is an independent organization of parents, educators, students and other citizens who care about education and are active in their schools and communities. The Wisconsin PTA is the largest and oldest volunteer child advocacy organization in the state.

Local PTA leaders work in partnership with teachers, school leadership, community agencies and civic leaders to deliver educational programs and resources plus encourage families to advocate for all children and youth.

Your membership in the Wisconsin at Large Unit (WALU) makes you a beacon of light for children throughout our state!

Anyone can Join!

Parents, teachers, grandparents, senior citizens, students, policy makers, business and civic leaders and anyone else concerned about the health, education and welfare of children is eligible to join WALU!

Why WALU?

Membership in the Wisconsin at Large Unit is an excellent way to show your support for the Wisconsin PTA even if there is not a PTA in your community. By supporting WALU, you support PTA and add your voice to those of concerned parents, teachers and school leaders across the state and around the nation who speak out for our children.

Your WALU membership entitles you the Wisconsin Parent Teacher publication, programs, resources, leadership trainings, special State & National PTA member benefits and much more!
